JOURNAL ENTRY ORDERING JUDICIAL RELEASE CONDITIONS

---

On April 16th, 2020, this matter came on for hearing on the Defendant's Motion for Judicial Release. The State of Ohio was represented by Assistant Athens County Prosecuting Attorney Sabrina J. Ennis. CODY PRATER was present, via video conference from the Chillicothe Correctional Institution, and represented by Douglas J. Francis, Attorney for Defendant.

The Court heard statements from counsel and hereby GRANTS Defendant's Motion for Judicial Release.

It is further ORDERED that CODY PRATER:

1. Shall be placed on five (5) years Community Control under the supervision of the Adult Parole Authority and subject to the standard terms and conditions of Community Control;
2. Shall report to the Adult Parole Authority by the end of the business day following their release from incarceration;
3. Shall obtain and maintain employment throughout the period of their Community Control;
4. Shall pay Court costs in full within 2 years;
5. Shall have no contact, directly or indirectly with the victim or victim's family;
6. Shall not consume alcoholic beverages or enter establishments where alcohol is served by the drink;
7. Shall contact Health Recovery Services within twenty-four (24) business hours following their release from incarceration to obtain a substance abuse assessment and follow all recommendations, shall sign any requested releases or authorizations, and shall be subject to random drug testing;
8. Shall not possess or use any controlled substance unless prescribed for them by a licensed healthcare professional and shall possess no prescriptions but their own;
9. Shall remain a law abiding citizen;

CASE OVER

10. Shall not leave the State of Ohio without permission given by the Court of the Adult Parole Authority;
11. AS previously ordered Defendant is a Tier II sexual offender and;
12. shall register within 3 days of his release from incarceration.
Defendant shall comply with all requirements of his Tier II sexual offender registration.

The Court reserves the right to reimpose the sentence that was reduced pursuant to Judicial Release if the Defendant violates the sanction. The Defendant was notified that if the Court reimposes the reduced sentence pursuant to the reserved right, it may do so concurrent with or consecutively to any new sentence imposed upon the Defendant as a result of any violation that is a new offense. The Defendant was informed that he is not eligible for any reduction in prison sentence for good time credit if she is sentenced to prison.

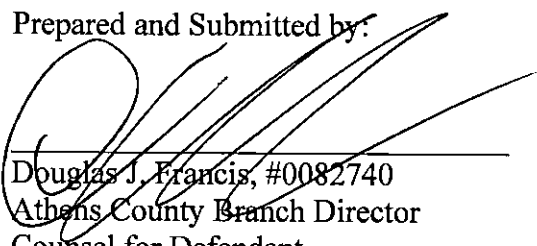

The Court has also notified the Defendant that post-release control for ~~three (3)~~ <sup>five (5)</sup> years is mandatory in this case, as well as the consequences for violating any conditions of post-release control that may be imposed by the Parole Board under R.C. 2967.28. The Defendant is ordered to serve as part of this sentence any term of post-release control imposed by the Parole Board, and any given prison term for violation of that post-release control.

The Court also advised the Defendant that if she commits a new offense while on Community Control, the sentence for such new offense may be ordered to run concurrently with or consecutively to the sentence which has been reduced pursuant to the granted Judicial Release contained herein.

BE IT SO ORDERED.
